GOVERNMENT BUILDING

We are frequently asked when we might expect a government building for Huntingdon. Of course we are in no attitude to answer this question intelligently. Any opinion we might give would be simply an opinion and nothing more. Of course there are certain facts and conditions that have to do with this question that any one who keeps up with public affairs may become informed about that should be of interest in reaching a conclusion touching this matter.

Congressman Sims, while in congress, succeeded in having the lot purchased and two different appropriation bills passed through the house, but these bills never reached the senate and of course are of no value now.

If we are correctly informed the public building committee of the present congress has a bill covering buildings of this kind, but has been unable to report it out. We cannot say whether the Huntingdon building has been favorably considered by that committee and will be included when the bill is reported out or not. We presume that Congressman Scott will carefully watch the interest of Huntingdon before this committee. We understand there are 116 cases where money has become available and additional appropriations are needed that will likely be taken care of first and that a strong pressure will be brought to bear on the committee to have an omnibus bill reported. No such bill has been reported out for eight years, and the strained condition of the treasury may prevent the consideration of such a bill for many years to come.

From these conditions it would seem safe to say that it will be a long time before Huntingdon will have a government building if she ever does succeed in securing one.

League of Women Voters

A meeting of the State League of Women Voters has been called by the chairman, Mrs. George, of Milton, for October 24, 25, at Memphis. The county chairmen are asked to call meetings and elect delegates. The president of all other clubs, or her alternate, is invited as "visiting delegates." Our national chairman, Mrs. Maud Wood Park, and vice-chairman, Mrs. Richard Edmonds, will be with us and deliver addresses, also films, a play, a public luncheon and other speeches are on the program. All county chairmen are asked to call meetings at once.

Respectfully,
Mrs. NEILL WRIGHT,
Chairman Eighth District.

Kitchen Shower

Misses Marjorie Noell and Frances Freeman entertained the bridal party of the Massey-Harper marriage last Monday night at the home of Miss Noell. Heart-shaped place cards were used and the topics of "Making happy husbands and wives" received the consideration of the guests, many amusing as well as practical suggestions being made. At the close of the evening a tempting two course menu was served. The hostesses were assisted in doing the honors of the occasion by their mothers, Mrs. E. C. Freeman and Mrs. W. L. Noell. A feature of the evening was a shower of kitchen utensils.

Moved to Jackson

The family of Rev. G. G. Joyner has moved to Jackson where they will reside and where Mr.

Joyner and his boys will be in school. The family left last week and Bro. Joyner will go after he closes his revival next week. Bro. Joyner, having entered the ministry, is going to make a great sacrifice to prepare himself for the work. He deserves the encouragement and sympathy of his people and friends at home. We believe he will make good and the sacrifice he is making will result in great good to the cause which he cherishes so highly.

Complimentary Dinner

Dr. Virgil Massey and Miss Hazel Harper, a bridal couple of this week, were complimented Wednesday evening by a beautifully planned 7 o'clock dinner, given at Ivy's tea room by Mr. Hobart Massey, brother of the groom, and Miss Bertha Edwards, a member of the bridal party.

The dining table was prettily appointed with bridal shower bouquet for central ornament surrounded by bridesmaid baskets of pink roses. Covers were laid for 24 a delicious four course menu was served.

Tom Herron Dead

Thomas H. Herron, a well-known citizen of McKenzie, died last Tuesday night. He had been sick for a long time with dropsy, and was confined to his bed most of the time for the last year. He was 61 years old, a member of the Methodist church, and is survived by his widow and one daughter. He was a brother of J. D. Herron, whose remains were brought to McKenzie for burial a few weeks ago. The deceased was a clever citizen and had many friends. The burial occurred Wednesday at Shiloh, after funeral services conducted by Rev. Cain, pastor of the McKenzie Methodist church.

Trezevant Gin Begins

One Trezevant gin has begun to run and the others are making preparation to begin operations right soon, and farmers are elated over the price they are getting for their cotton. The staple has begun to move in quantities on that market and farmers say that it has been many years since they have seen their cotton open so fast as it is now.

Holding Revivals

We had a card this week from Rev. T. M. Boyd, who at that time was at Soper Okla., and was holding a revival in that community. He had just closed a meeting at Atlas church near Soper with 25 conversions and the same number of additions. We was entering at Farney. Bro. Boyd said the people were blue there over the damage done the cotton crop by the boll weevil, but the spiritual interest was exceedingly good.

Squire Hawkes Dead

Mr. W. R. Hawkes, 63, died Monday at his home in Gleason. He had been confined to his bed for two months with cancer of the stomach. Mr. Hawkes was one of Gleason's most prominent farmers and truck growers. He is credited with starting the sweet potato interest in that section. He was a fine man and a valuable citizen.

Meeting at Cobbs

Rev. G. G. Joyner will preach at his church in Vale next Sunday. He will begin that night a meeting at the Cobb school house three miles from Rosser. The citizens of the Cobb school house community have erected a large arbor for this meeting and they are expecting a great revival. This is a fine neighborhood and not being close to a church they are anxious for a good meeting and are willing to prepare for it.

Mrs. Morgan Dead

Mrs. Martha M. Morgan, one of the oldest citizens of the county, passed away suddenly Sunday night at her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Crossett, near Hico. She was in her usual health upon retiring. About 11 o'clock, hearing her moaning, her daughter went to her room and found her very ill, and in a few minutes she was gone. Death was thought to be caused from the bursting of a blood vessel. She was a life-long member of the Baptist church and a good christian woman.

Mrs. Morgan is survived by two sons, Alvin Morgan, of the Nineteenth district, Adolphus, of the Ninth district, five daughters, Mrs. J. W. Merritt, Mrs. M. M. Merritt and Mrs. M. F. Bell, all of
